You're shopping at the mall with your children when one of them suddenly disappears. A quick search of the nearby area is unsuccessful. What do you do?

The FBI's new Child ID App can help.

Safe Kids North Carolina is partnering with the FBI to help spread the word about this free mobile application that provides a convenient place to electronically store photos and vital information about your child, so that it's literally right at hand if you need it.

In the unlikely event that your child goes missing, you can:

- Show your child's picture and provide physical identifiers, such as height and weight, to security or police officers on the spot.
- Quickly and easily email your child's identifying information to authorities with just a few clicks.
- View guidance about what to do in those first few crucial hours after a child goes missing.
